

Dear all,

Here is the minutes from today's meeting.

o ROC-LV GUI <Maya>

- Maya disable "All on" button on ROC-LV GUI.
- Maya make the code available to make two ROC power supply on simultaneously.
- Ivan can test filter board using Steve's GUI to turn on distribution boards for filter board.
- Maya/Wei-Che/Itaru will work on the individual LV channel control and complete the cable-channel mapping tomorrow. Will start working at 9:40 in IR.

o Bias voltage <Joseph>

- Joseph should look into FVTX/PIXEL GUI. The digit problem is fixed in their code.
- Joseph explore to overcome the firewall issue on OPC0 to make the present code working in 1008.
- Joseph should look into FVTX/PIXEL GUI code and find out what was set for the ramping speed. 1V/s or 5V/s or something else? Check INTT power machine in the silicon lab.
- Joseph focus on the back end and get united with Genki's GUI.
- Genki try to turn on bias voltage to South bias channel tomorrow.

o Commissioning workfest <Joseph>

- Joseph/Itaru get information from Raul and Martin for the timeline of raw data available. Raul needs to accumulate data with 2 ROCs in order to produce raw data for Martin to develop the decoder.
- Joseph reports to the workfest that Raul is working on the INTT GTM.
- Our best estimate of the prdf data format becomes available by the end of next week.
- Survey will be arranged next week. The survey data will be available after a month or so.
- Joseph's priority order: HV, online monitor, and survey.
- Rachid/Joseph check with Chris if there is roottree
- Wei drop an inquiry e-mail to Takahi regarding the root-tree and prdf relationship.

o Travel Schedule

- Wei talk to Milan for possible travel to BNL in April about the month when we start taking data. Rachid will tell you when.
- Cheng-Wei talk to Ming if he can travel to BNL.

- Maya will release midnight detector shift in May. Please contact with her by the end of this week.
- Rachid raise expert shift to be considered to be equivalent to the regular shift to be in the author list.
